

Holy Eucharist and Healing Prayer

Presider Blessed be God:
most holy, glorious, and undivided Trinity.
People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

The Presider says the Collect of Purity

The Presider and People then say

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Presider then says the Collect of the Day

The Gospel is proclaimed. A time for reflection follows.

The Presider then begins the Prayers

Presider Lord, hear our prayer;

People And let our cry come to you.

Presider Our Lord Jesus healed many as a sign of the reign of God come near and sent the disciples to continue this work of healing. We too are called to this ministry of prayer and now, in the name of Christ, the great healer and reconciler of the world, we entrust to God all who are in need of healing.

Let us pray.

One Loving God, our source and our final home, we give you thanks for the gifts of life on earth, for our human bodies and all you have created. Help us always to be mindful of our blessings, even in times of stress and discomfort, that we may use them in ways that please you and serve others.

All In your great mercy,
hear our prayer.

One Merciful God, by the wounds of your Son we are healed. Bring your saving health to all people and to communities throughout the world, that divisions may cease and brothers and sisters may live together in peace.

All In your great mercy,
hear our prayer.

One Holy God, your Spirit came upon us in the waters of baptism and brought us into the communion of saints. Renew in us the grace of baptism, by which we share in Christ's death and resurrection.

All In your great mercy,
hear our prayer.

One Restoring God, your Son Jesus brought healing and wholeness to all. Bring your healing presence now to all who are in any distress, especially those we name now before you, aloud or in silence.

All In your great mercy,
hear our prayer.

One Almighty God, source of human knowledge, give skill, wisdom, and compassion to all who provide medical care, and keep them safe.
In your great mercy,
All hear our prayer.

One Loving God, our creator and redeemer, give gentleness and courage to family members, friends, and caregivers of all who are suffering.
In your great mercy,
All hear our prayer.

Presider God of great and abundant mercy, with your presence sustain all for whom we pray. Drive away their suffering, give them firm hope, and strengthen their trust in you; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.
All Amen.

The Presider prays for each person present, saying

Name, in the name of our Savior Jesus Christ, be strengthened and filled with God's grace, that you may know the healing power of the Spirit.

The Presider and People then pray together

Living God, grant comfort in suffering to all. When we are afraid, give courage; when afflicted, give patience; when dejected, give hope; and when alone, assure us of the support of your holy people. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The Prayer of the Eucharist follows, after which the Presider and People say the Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

After the Bread has been broken and shared, the Presider and People pray together

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The service concludes with a blessing and dismissal.
