The Officiant prays the Collect of the Day

Psalm

Officiant and People

I lift up my eyes to the hills;
from where is my help to come?
My help comes from the Lord,
the maker of heaven and earth.
He will not let your foot be moved and he who watches over you will not fall asleep.
Behold, he who keeps watch over Israel
shall neither slumber nor sleep;
The Lord himself watches over you;
the Lord is your shade at your right hand,
So that the sun shall not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.
The Lord shall preserve you from all evil;
it is he who shall keep you safe.
The Lord shall watch over your going out and your coming in,
from this time forth for evermore.

The Prayers

Officiant Lord, hear our prayer;
People And let our cry come to you.

Officiant Our Lord Jesus healed many as a sign of the reign of God come near and sent the disciples to continue this work of healing. We too are called to this ministry of prayer and now, in the name of Christ, the great healer and reconciler of the world, we entrust to God all who are in need of healing.
Let us pray.

One Loving God, our source and our final home, we give you thanks for the gifts of life on earth, for our human bodies and all you have created. Help us always to be mindful of our blessings, even in times of stress and discomfort, that we may use them in ways that please you and serve others.
In your great mercy,
All hear our prayer.

One Merciful God, by the wounds of your Son we are healed. Bring your saving health to all people and to communities throughout the world, that divisions may cease and brothers and sisters may live together in peace.
In your great mercy,
All hear our prayer.

One Holy God, your Spirit came upon us in the waters of baptism and brought us into the communion of saints. Renew in us the grace of baptism, by which we share in Christ's death and resurrection.
In your great mercy,
All hear our prayer.

One Restoring God, your Son Jesus brought healing and wholeness to all. Bring your healing presence now to all who are in any distress, especially those we name now before you, aloud or in silence.

Silence

In your great mercy,
All hear our prayer.

One Almighty God, source of human knowledge, give skill, wisdom, and compassion to all who provide medical care, and keep them safe.
In your great mercy,
All hear our prayer.

One Loving God, our creator and redeemer, give gentleness and courage to family members, friends, and caregivers of all who are suffering.
In your great mercy,
All hear our prayer.

Officiant God of great and abundant mercy, with your presence sustain all for whom we pray. Drive away their suffering, give them firm hope, and strengthen their trust in you; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

All Amen.

The Officiant prays for each person present, saying

Name, in the name of our Savior Jesus Christ, be strengthened and filled with God's grace, that you may know the healing power of the Spirit.

The Officiant and People then pray together

Living God, grant comfort in suffering to all. When we are afraid, give courage; when afflicted, give patience; when dejected, give hope; and when alone, assure us of the support of your holy people. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Officiant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The service concludes with a blessing or the Grace.
